

Internship opportunities at the World Bank Group

	Internships at the World Bank Group	Internships at the International Finance Corporation
Particularity	Excellent opportunity for students to gain an insight into the WBG's operations and policies during their summer or winter break.	Great opportunity for students with little work experience to spend their summer completing a paid internship at IFC, after which they are encouraged to apply for a full-time opportunity at IFC available after their graduation.
Duration	4-12 weeks	4-10 weeks
Duty station	Generally HQ, some in country offices	HQ or country or regional office
Age	No age limit	No age limit
Academic requirements	Currently enrolled in a full-time Master or PhD study programme with plans to return to school after internship	Currently enrolled in the first or second-to-last year of an MBA or similar graduate programme
Professional experience required	Some professional experience is beneficial	3-6 years for investment positions
Language requirements	Proficiency in English; knowledge of another WB language is beneficial	Proficiency in English; proficiency in one or more of Arabic, Chinese, French, Russian and Spanish strongly preferred
Compensation	Hourly salary and travel allowance	Salary
Available positions	150-200 positions per year	30-40 positions per intake
Number of applicants per intake	ca. 2,000-3,000 for winter intake; ca. 5,000 for summer intake	1,500
Application dates and intakes	Winter intake (Dec-Mar): applications received in September and October Summer intake (Jun-Sep): applications received in December and January	Applications received in December and January for intake between May and September
Official Website	The World Bank – Internships	International Finance Corporation – Summer Internship Program